Dear Sirs

Independent Reasonable Assurance Report to The Scottish Conservative Party ("the Party") on the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament

We were engaged by the Party to report on the Party's expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament and the accompanying management assertion thereon the "expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament" for the year ended 31 March 2018, in the form of an independent reasonable assurance conclusion about whether the Party's assertion that the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament is fairly presented, in all material respects, based on the Scottish Parliament (Assistance for Registered Political Parties) Order 1999 is fairly stated.

Party's Responsibilities

The Board of the Party are responsible for preparing a claim which fairly states the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament and which is free from material misstatement in accordance with the Scottish Parliament (Assistance for Registered Political Parties) Order 1999 and for the information contained therein.

This responsibility includes: designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the presentation of expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. It also includes maintaining adequate records in relation to the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament.

Our Responsibilities

Our responsibility is to examine the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament prepared by the Party and to report thereon in the form of an independent reasonable assurance conclusion based on the evidence obtained. We conducted our engagement in accordance with International Standard on Assurance Engagements (ISAE) 3000 Revised, Assurance Engagements Other Than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board. That standard requires that we comply with ethical requirements, including independence requirements, and plan and perform our procedures to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament are fairly presented, in all material respects.

Scope of the Assurance Engagement

The procedures selected depend on our judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament whether due to fraud or error.

Our engagement also included: assessing the appropriateness of the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament and the suitability of the criteria used by the Party in preparing the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament in the circumstances of the engagement. Reasonable assurance is less than absolute assurance.

- 1) We checked the arithmetical accuracy of the claim;
- 2) We checked a sample of the expenses claimed as financial assistance to supporting documentation;
- 3) We checked whether a sample of the expenses incurred were in relation to Parliamentary business in accordance with the requirements of Section 4 (4) of the Scottish Parliament (Assistance for Registered Political Parties) Order 1999 as defined by the Party, and noted above.

We believe that the evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our conclusion.

Conclusion

Our conclusion has been formed on the basis of, and is subject to, the matters outlined in this report.

- In our opinion, the expenses in respect of which the Party claimed payments from The Scottish Parliament are properly prepared, in all material respects, based on the Scottish Parliament (Assistance for Registered Political Parties) Order 1999.

Our report should not be regarded as suitable to be used or relied on by any party wishing to acquire rights against us other than the Party for any purpose or in any context.
