<Sanction for counsel

Sanction for counsel: presumption in certain circumstances

- (1) This section applies to relevant proceedings before a sheriff whose jurisdiction has been extended territorially throughout Scotland by an order under section 41(1).
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), in such proceedings the sheriff will be presumed, for the purposes of any provision in an act of sederunt made under section 97 or 99, to have sanctioned the employment of counsel in relation to—
 - (a) appearance at any hearing in the proceedings, and
 - (b) the preparation of any document to be lodged in the proceedings.
- (3) The sheriff may, on the motion or incidental application of a party to the proceedings, or of the sheriff's own accord, direct that the circumstances of a case are such that it would not be appropriate that subsection (2) applies either at all or to such extent as the sheriff may direct.
- (4) A direction may only be made under subsection (3) where the sheriff is satisfied that special cause has been shown to establish that the action—
 - (a) is straightforward,
 - (b) involves settled law,
 - (c) involves a small number of witnesses whose witness evidence is not expected to be of a complex nature.
- (5) In this section, “relevant proceedings” means—
 - (a) any proceedings in which damages claimed consist of or include damages for personal injuries sustained by a person who has died in consequence of those injuries,
 - (b) all work related personal injury proceedings, or
 - (c) any other personal injury proceedings in which the damages claimed, exclusive of interest and expenses, exceeds £20,000.
- (6) The Scottish Ministers may by order modify subsection (5) or substitute other amounts for the amount for the time being specified in subsection (5)(c).
- (7) This section does not affect any power which the parties have, apart from this section, to apply to the sheriff to sanction the employment of counsel in any case.>

Section 104

Elaine Murray

- 7 In section 104, page 59, line 8, at end insert—

<() This section does not apply to an appeal against any decision of a sheriff constituting final judgement in proceedings including a claim for damages in respect of personal injury, where the jurisdiction of the sheriff has been extended territorially throughout Scotland by an order under section 41(1).>

After section 107

Elaine Murray

- 8 After section 107, insert—

<Appeal from sheriff to the Court of Session in certain cases

- (1) This section applies to an appeal against any decision of a sheriff constituting final judgement in proceedings including a claim for damages in respect of personal injury, where the jurisdiction of the sheriff has been extended territorially throughout Scotland by an order under section 41(1).
- (2) An appeal may be taken to the Court of Session on the application of a party to the proceedings, without the need for permission, against any decision of the sheriff.
- (3) In determining an appeal under this section, the Court of Session has power to—
 - (a) grant such disposal as the Court sees fit, including by (in whole or in part)—
 - (i) adhering to the decision that is subject to the appeal,
 - (ii) recalling the decision,
 - (iii) varying the decision,
 - (iv) remitting the case back to the sheriff,
 - (v) dismissing the appeal,
 - (b) make such incidental or interim orders as may be necessary, and
 - (c) determine any incidental or other issue that needs to be determined for the purpose of doing justice in the appeal.
- (4) This section does not affect any other right of appeal against any decision of a sheriff to the Court of Session under any other enactment.
- (5) This section is subject to any provision of any other enactment that restricts or excludes a right of appeal from a sheriff to the Court of Session.>

Section 110

Elaine Murray

- 9 In section 110, page 62, line 3, after <107> insert <, (Appeal from sheriff to the Court of Session in certain cases)>

<Appointment of Court of Session judges, etc.

In the Judiciary and Courts (Scotland) Act 2008, for sections 21 to 23 substitute—

“Other Court of Session judges

20A Qualification of certain individuals for appointment as Court of Session judge

- (1) An individual is qualified for appointment as a judge of the Court of Session if the individual—
 - (a) immediately before the appointment—
 - (i) held the office of sheriff principal or sheriff, and
 - (ii) had held office as either sheriff principal or sheriff throughout the period of 5 years immediately preceding the appointment, or
 - (b) at the time of appointment—
 - (i) is a solicitor having a right of audience in the Court of Session or the High Court of Justiciary under section 25A of the Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980 (rights of audience), and
 - (ii) has been such a solicitor throughout the period of 5 years immediately preceding the appointment.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect an individual’s qualification for appointment as a judge of the Court of Session by virtue of article xix of the Union with England Act 1707.

20B Temporary judges

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may appoint an individual to act as a judge of the Court of Session; and an individual so appointed is to be known as a “temporary judge”.
- (2) An individual appointed under subsection (1) may also, by virtue of the appointment, act as a judge of the High Court of Justiciary.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may appoint an individual under subsection (1) only if—
 - (a) the individual is qualified for appointment as a judge of the Court of Session, and

- (b) the Scottish Ministers have consulted the Lord President before making the appointment.
- (4) Subject to section 20C, an appointment as a temporary judge lasts for 5 years.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), an individual appointed under subsection (1) is, while acting as a judge of the Court of Session or the High Court of Justiciary, to be treated for all purposes as a judge of that Court and may exercise the jurisdiction and powers that attach to that office.
- (6) Such an individual is not to be treated as a judge of the Court of Session for the purposes of any enactment or rule of law relating to—
 - (a) the appointment, tenure of office, retirement, removal or disqualification of judges of that Court (including, without limiting that generality, any enactment or rule of law relating to the number of judges who may be appointed),
 - (b) the remuneration, allowances or pensions of such a judge.
- (7) The appointment of an individual under subsection (1) does not affect—
 - (a) any appointment of the individual as a sheriff principal or sheriff, or
 - (b) the individual's continuing with any business or professional occupation not inconsistent with the individual acting as a judge.

20C Reappointment of temporary judges

- (1) A temporary judge whose appointment comes to an end by virtue of the expiry of the 5 year period mentioned in section 20B(4) is to be reappointed unless—
 - (a) the temporary judge declines reappointment,
 - (b) the Lord President has made a recommendation to the Scottish Ministers against the reappointment, or
 - (c) the temporary judge has sat for fewer than 50 days in total in that 5 year period.
- (2) Section 20B (apart from subsection (3)) applies to a reappointment under subsection (1) as it applies to an appointment.
- (3) A temporary judge whose appointment comes to an end by resignation under section 20D may be reappointed.
- (4) Section 20B applies to a reappointment under subsection (3) as it applies to an appointment.

20D Cessation of appointment of temporary judges

- (1) A temporary judge may resign at any time by giving notice to that effect to the Scottish Ministers.
- (2) An individual's appointment as a temporary judge ends—
 - (a) when the individual resigns in accordance with subsection (1),
 - (b) when the individual retires from office, or

- (c) if the individual is removed from office as such under section 39 (temporary judges: removal from office).

20E Re-employment of former Court of Session and Supreme Court judges

- (1) The Lord President may appoint a qualifying former judge to act as a judge of the Court of Session.
- (2) An individual appointed under subsection (1) may also, by virtue of the appointment, act as a judge of the High Court of Justiciary.
- (3) An individual so appointed may act as a judge only during such periods or on such occasions as the Lord President may determine.
- (4) The Lord President may make an appointment under subsection (1) only if it appears to the Lord President to be expedient as a temporary measure in order to facilitate the disposal of business in the Court of Session or the High Court of Justiciary.
- (5) A “qualifying former judge” is an individual who—
 - (a) has ceased to hold the office of—
 - (i) judge of the Court of Session other than by virtue of section 95(6) of the Scotland Act 1998, or
 - (ii) Justice of the Supreme Court or President or Deputy President of that Court and who, at the time of being appointed to the office in question, was eligible for appointment as a judge in the Court of Session, and
 - (b) has not reached the age of 75.

20F Re-employment of former judges: further provision

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an individual’s appointment under section 20E(1) lasts until recalled by the Lord President.
- (2) An individual’s appointment under section 20E(1) ceases when the individual reaches the age of 75.
- (3) Despite the ending of an individual’s appointment under section 20E(1)—
 - (a) the individual may continue to deal with, give judgment in or deal with an ancillary matter relating to, a case begun before the individual while acting under that appointment,
 - (b) so far as necessary for that purpose, and for the purpose of any subsequent proceedings arising out of the case or matter, the individual is to be treated as acting or, as the case may be, having acted under that appointment.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), an individual appointed under section 20E(1) is, while acting as a judge of the Court of Session or the High Court of Justiciary, to be treated for all purposes as a judge of that Court and may exercise the jurisdiction and powers that attach to that office.
- (5) Such an individual is not to be treated as a judge of the Court of Session for the purposes of any enactment or rule of law relating to—

- (a) the appointment, tenure of office, retirement, removal or disqualification of judges of that Court (including, without limiting that generality, any enactment or rule of law relating to the number of judges who may be appointed),
- (b) the oaths to be taken by such judges,
- (c) the remuneration, allowances or pensions of such a judge.

20G Remuneration and expenses of temporary and former judges

- (1) The Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service (“the SCTS”) is to pay to an individual appointed under section 20B(1) or 20E(1) such remuneration as the Scottish Ministers may determine.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may determine different amounts of remuneration for—
 - (a) different individuals so appointed, or
 - (b) different descriptions of individuals so appointed.
- (3) The SCTS may pay to an individual appointed under section 20B(1) or 20E(1) such sums as it may determine in respect of expenses reasonably incurred by the individual in the performance of, or in connection with, the individual’s duties.
- (4) The SCTS may—
 - (a) determine the circumstances in which such sums may be paid, and
 - (b) determine different circumstances for different individuals.”.>
