<Reversion of land to further sustainable development>

Reversion of land to further sustainable development

- (1) Where a Part 5 community body or third party purchaser exercises a right to buy under this Part and the Scottish Ministers consent to the application, the former owner of the land may, after the expiry of a period of 3 years beginning with the date that consent was given to the application, apply for ownership of the land to revert to the former owner.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers must not consent to an application under subsection (1) unless they are satisfied that—
  - (a) the sustainable development conditions mentioned in subsection (3) are met, and
  - (b) the procedural requirements mentioned in subsection (4) have been complied with.
- (3) The sustainable development conditions are met if—
  - (a) the use or management of the land is inconsistent with the purpose of the original acquisition by the Part 5 community body or third party purchaser,
  - (b) reversion of the land to the former owner is more likely to further the achievement of sustainable development in relation to the land,
  - (c) the reversion of the land to the former owner is likely to result in significant benefit to the relevant community (within the meaning given in section 47(9)), and
  - (d) not granting consent to the reversion of the land to the former owner is likely to result in significant harm to that community.
- (4) The procedural requirements are met if—
  - (a) the Part 5 community body is accurately identified in the application,
  - (b) where a third party purchaser was nominated, that purchaser is accurately identified in the application,
  - (c) any creditor in a standard security over the land or any part of it is accurately identified in the application,
  - (d) the area of land identified in the application is the same as that originally acquired by the Part 5 community body,
  - (e) the Part 5 community body is not prevented from selling the land, and
  - (f) the former owner complies with such other procedural requirements as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations specify.

- (5) In this section, “former owner”—
  - (a) means the owner of the land immediately prior to the purchase of that land by a Part 5 community body or third party purchaser, and
  - (b) includes the successors of the former owner.
- (6) Where two or more successors of the former owner make an application under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must decide which application is to proceed.
- (7) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision setting out how such other provisions of this Part as they consider appropriate, with such modifications as they consider appropriate, are to apply to an application under this section.>

- (2) After section 85, insert—

“PART 8A

COMMON LAND PROTECTION ORDERS

85A Common land protection order

- (1) A person may apply to the Keeper for an order to be made under this section in respect of an area of land which is not registered in either the register or the Register of Sasines (a “common land protection order”).
- (2) Before making a common land protection order, the Keeper must consult—
  - (a) the public in the area where the land is located, and
  - (b) such other persons as the Keeper considers appropriate.
- (3) If subsection (4) applies, the Keeper must make a common land protection order in respect of the land specified in the application.

- (4) This subsection applies if, after consulting as required by subsection (2) and taking such other steps as the Keeper considers appropriate to establish whether the land is owned, the Keeper is satisfied that the land is not owned.
- (5) If the Keeper is satisfied as mentioned in subsection (4) only in relation to part of the land specified in the application, the Keeper must make a common land protection order in respect of the part of the land in relation to which the Keeper is so satisfied.
- (6) A common land protection order has effect until revoked (in whole or part) by the Keeper.

85B Revocation of common land protection order

- (1) Where subsection (2) applies, a person (“A”) may apply to the Keeper for a common land protection order to be revoked (in whole or part).
- (2) This subsection applies if A believes that A holds a valid title to the land (or part of the land) in respect of which the common land protection order has effect.
- (3) If subsection (4) applies, the Keeper must revoke the common land protection order.
- (4) This subsection applies if, after taking such steps as the Keeper considers appropriate to establish whether A holds a valid title to the land specified in the application, the Keeper is satisfied that A holds such a title.
- (5) If the Keeper is satisfied as mentioned in subsection (4) only in relation to part of the land specified in the application, the Keeper must revoke the common land protection order only in respect of the land in relation to which the Keeper is so satisfied.

85C Further provision in relation to making and revocation of common land protection orders

The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make such further provision in relation to the making and revocation of common land protection orders as they consider appropriate.”.

- (3) In section 22(1) (general application conditions), after paragraph (a), insert—
  - “(aa) the application does not relate to land in respect of which a common land protection order has effect,”.
- (4) In section 29 (Keeper-induced registration), after subsection (1), insert—
  - “(1A) The Keeper must not register under subsection (1) any land in respect of which a common land protection order has effect.”.
- (5) In section 113(1) (interpretation), after the definition of “cadastral unit”, insert—
  - ““common land protection order” means an order made under section 85A,”.
- (6) In section 116(3) (subordinate legislation), after paragraph (h), insert—
  - “(ha) section 85C,”.>

<PART

COMPULSORY SALE ORDERS

Compulsory sale orders

- (1) A local authority may, in relation to land within the authority's area which falls within subsection (2), make an order requiring the owner of land specified in the order to offer the land for sale by such method and within such period as is so specified (a "compulsory sale order").
- (2) That land is land which—
  - (a) has been vacant or derelict for a continuous period of at least three years prior to the date on which the compulsory sale order is made, and
  - (b) is—
    - (i) of such type as may be specified, and
    - (ii) no greater in area than the maximum area specified,for the purposes of this section by the Scottish Ministers by regulations.
- (3) A compulsory sale order may be made—
  - (a) on the authority's own initiative, or
  - (b) on an application by a community body.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision in connection with compulsory sale orders.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (4) may in particular include provision about—
  - (a) circumstances in which a compulsory sale order may not be made,
  - (b) any consultation and notification that is to take place before a compulsory sale order may be made,
  - (c) information that is to be contained in a compulsory sale order,
  - (d) the ability of local authorities to require the giving of commitments by prospective purchasers as to the future use of land which is subject to a compulsory sale order,
  - (e) whether the owner may refuse to accept offers for land which is subject to a compulsory sale order,
  - (f) circumstances in which a local authority may, following the making of a compulsory sale order, make its own arrangements for the land subject to the order to be sold at public auction,
  - (g) a procedure for any community body which has had a request to a local authority to make a compulsory sale order refused to appeal against that decision,
  - (h) the maintenance by local authorities of registers of vacant or derelict land for the purposes of identifying land which may be made subject to a compulsory sale order.
- (6) In this section—

“community body” means a body, whether or not formally constituted, established for purposes which consist of or include that of promoting or improving the interests of any communities (however described) present in the area in which the vacant or derelict land is situated,

“land” includes buildings (including residential properties and individual properties within tenements).>

<“6ZA Public register of deer management plans

- (1) This section applies to owners and occupiers of land who, in the form of a deer management group, produce a deer management plan.
- (2) Such owners and occupiers of land must upon production of a deer management plan—

- (a) give notice via a public register, managed by Scottish Natural Heritage, that a new deer management plan is proposed,
  - (b) specify in the notice the period within which, and the manner in which, representations or objections with respect to the proposed deer management plan may be made,
  - (c) specify in the notice details of—
    - (i) where and how such representations or objections (if any are made) may be viewed, and
    - (ii) how copies of any such representations or objections that are made may be obtained,
  - (d) consult persons who, so far as they can reasonably ascertain, have an interest in, or may be affected by, the proposed plan, and
