

Lobbying (Scotland) Bill at Stage 1 – Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee Report

Correspondence received from the Scottish Government on 9 December 2015

Many thanks for altering us to the above.

The Government notes the Committee's report on the Lobbying (Scotland) Bill, in particular the Committee's observation that a Code of Conduct (as proposed at Section 44 of the Bill) in these circumstances is unusual, but welcomes the fact that the Committee is content with the power.
