

Scottish Parliament – Health and Sport Committee

Mind the 28 year gap: Health inequalities in Scotland

Stakeholder conference event at the Scottish Parliament – 18 February 2013

Programme

From 0900	Arrival, registration and coffee
1000	Introduction by the Convener
1005	Speaker 1 – Professor Clare Bambra The contribution of work and worklessness to health inequalities
1025	Q&A (Chaired by the Convener)
1045	Comfort break
1100	Breakout groups 1 (4 groups) <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Are we getting our money's worth? Consideration of value for money and cost effectiveness of interventions: Key contributor: Anne Ludbrook2. Whatever happened to Single Outcome Agreements and the National Performance Framework? Developing structures to support transformative change and a move to outcomes-based approaches. Key contributor: Della Thomas3. New ways of thinking about community and health: Assets-based approaches and community-level interventions Key contributor: Fiona Garven and Janet Muir4. Where should research, policy and evaluation meet? Key contributor: Kat Smith
1215	Buffet lunch served in the members' restaurant
1315	Speaker 2 – Professor Kate Pickett Is economic equality the key to health equality in Scotland?
1335	Q&A
1355	Breakout groups 2 (4 groups – same as morning)
1500	Plenary debate
1520	Close