Dear Rob

PUBLICATION OF SCOTTISH GREENHOUSE GAS EMISSIONS 1990-2013

I am writing to alert you to today's publication of an Official Statistics release which details the latest Scottish greenhouse gas emissions data for 2013. It is available online at: www.gov.scot/stats/bulletins/01162

Scottish emissions data is also made available through the publication of the Greenhouse Gas Inventories for England; Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland: 1990-2013. That report, in agreement with our devolved administration counterparts, includes estimates of end user emissions, and will be available today on the National Atmospheric Emissions Inventory website at www.naei.org.uk.

I will be making a statement to Parliament later today on the greenhouse gas emissions statistics.

Kind regards

AILEEN MCLEOD
