Dear Chief Constable

Policing of major events

The Justice Sub-Committee on Policing, recognising the considerable demands placed on Police Scotland to police major events such as the Commonwealth Games and Ryder Cup, sought a written update from the SPA in April on its governance in monitoring the potential implications on day-to-day policing during these events. The update provided details of the oversight mechanisms it had established to monitor the impact on day-to-day policing.

The Sub-Committee yesterday agreed to write to you, now that these major events have passed, seeking an update on any outstanding issues and lessons learned arising from the events. We have written to the SPA on similar terms.

I would be grateful for this response by 10 December.

Yours sincerely

Christine Grahame MSP
Convener, Justice Sub-Committee on Policing
